ADULT FALL CATALOG 2026

Online Registration opens Tuesday, July 10th at 7:00 AM on www.wesleyanpotters.com

Pottery

For Adults

Adult pottery classes are available for beginners and intermediates. The curriculum covers hand-building, wheel-throwing, glaze application, and decorative technique on high-fired stoneware. Only pots made with clay supplied by Wesleyan Potters can be fired in our kilns. Clay and tools cost extra, but glaze materials and firing are included. Classes meet on holidays unless otherwise noted.

Bench Times

open to all pottery students

Tuesday: 12:30 - 3:00 pm
Saturday: 12:30 - 3:00 pm
Sunday: 12:30 - 3:00 pm

Students are allowed to attend 2 out of the 3 offered days. Students must sign into bench time. There are unofficial bench times associated with PM1, PW1 and PTH1. Students in these classes may attend their class bench time plus one additional bench time.

During Saturday and Sunday bench time, subject to availability, students may stay an additional hour with a $5 donation to the Wesleyan Potters Scholarship Fund.

Wesleyan Potters

YOUTH FALL CATALOG 2026

Online Registration opens Tuesday, July 14th at 7:00 AM on www.wesleyanpotters.com

Teen Pottery

Beginner students will start by mastering the fundamentals of throwing and working with clay on the wheel, while more experienced students will be challenged to create complex forms and vessels.

In addition to throwing techniques, students will learn various decorating, altering, and finishing methods, including glazing. This comprehensive course will help teens develop their skills and produce functional and decorative pieces. Clay and tools cost extra, but glaze materials and firing are included.

Sec. YTP Sabrina Skinner

7 sessions: Thursdays

Aug 27 - Oct 08

Class: 4:00 - 6:00 pm

Tuition: $196

Bench Times

Tuesday: 12:30 - 3:00 pm

Saturday: 12:30 - 3:00 pm

Sunday: 12:30 - 3:00 pm

Teen pottery students are welcome to attend general pottery studio bench times on Tuesdays, Saturdays, and Sundays from 12:30 - 3:00 pm. During Saturday and Sunday bench time, subject to availability, students may stay for an additional hour with a $5 donation to the Wesleyan Potters General Fund.

Youth Handbuilding

Students will work in our spacious studio and explore the exciting world of pottery, creating both functional and decorative pieces using techniques like pinching, coiling, extruding, and slab construction.

Youth hand-building classes introduce surface design methods such as stamping, carving, and rolling out patterns with materials, lace and natural objects. Children will have the opportunity to add vibrant colors using underglazes and finish their work with a clear glaze.

This engaging and educational experience is perfect for nurturing children's artistic talents and providing them with a fun and enriching after-school activity.

Sec. YHB Linda Schiwall

6 sessions: Tuesdays

Sept 09 - Oct 06

Class: 4:00 - 6:00 pm

Tuition: $168

Materials Fee: $10
